BRIEFINGS.

—Wisconsin Lodge No. 13, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows' hall this evening.

—About two hundred of our citizens went to Chicago this morning on the excursion train.

—The next entertainment at the opera house will be on June 5th, Leon & Gustav's minstrels.

—Evansville Enterprise—Mrs. Hiram Spencer left town yesterday for a week's visit with an old friend in Janesville.

—Mr. Frank Gray, who has been confined to his home for the past week, is now able to be out, and occupies his usual place on the board of trade.

—Funeral was before the municipal court this afternoon on charge of adultery, but the court being engaged with the cemetery case, the examination was again postponed.

—Messrs. Ed. F. Carpenter and Thomas Bowles have been offered, by Milwaukee parties, the sum of five hundred dollars for their mare by Bowles' Almont, and the handsome offer was declined.

—In the municipal court to-day, the case of the state against Joanna and Jennie Peters, on charge of stealing flowers and plants from Oak Hill cemetery, is on trial. C. E. Pierce is conducting the prosecution, and B. F. Danwidlo the defense.

—Dr. F. R. Sweenk, the dentist, has a very handsome Kansas red bird at his rooms over Stearns & Baker's drug store, West Milwaukee street. We are not sufficiently posted in ornithology to give a perfect description of the bird, but that it is as a beauty no one will deny.

—The new furniture parlors in the Norcross block are being filled to-day with a choice lot of goods. The rooms, upstairs and down, are very commodious, and the new goods show up to good advantage. Messrs. Coon & Hanson are to be congratulated on having secured so convenient a store. Cell and examine their stock.

—This stock contained in the Elopahat clothing store is to-day being moved from west Milwaukee street to Tallman's block next door to Archie Reid's on Main street. The sign of the elephant will hereafter be among the attractions of the east side. We learn from Mr. Boyd that the west side property has changed hands which is the cause of this removal.

—Messrs. Lyon & Haskell have completed the concrete sidewalk in front of the Norcross block, River street, and it is now ready for pedestrians, and will be all right and smooth in a few days. It is suggested that it would be a capital thing for that street if Mr. A. P. Bennett would "catch the concrete fever" and follow suit on the River street side of his building, by putting down a walk the same width.

—May 30th an excursion train will leave Racine at 9 a. m., stopping at Delavan for their company, and at Beloit, arriving at Janesville at 10:30, leaving with the Guards and Rifles at 10:35 a. m. Round trip tickets good for that day and train, $1.65. This will give the friends of the companies here an opportunity of visiting the beautiful city of Monroe at a very slight expense and seeing the 1st regiment, which will be in better form than ever before.

—Two prominent West side men had a lively discussion yesterday about the location of the passage of scripture which reads: "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." One of them contended that it was in the book of Psalms, and the other was willing to bet that it was to be found in an old English history up at the house. These gentlemen are good candidates for the Lime Kiln Club.

—Mr. Fred Feltz, whose merchant tailoring establishment is located opposite the corn exchange square on West Milwaukee street, has his corner loaded with a very choice lot of cloths and suitings. Mr. Feltz is a practical cutter and has a faculty of pleasing his patrons, and his trade is rapidly increasing.

—When you want a good custom made suit it will pay you to call at West Milwaukee street, opposite the corn exchange square.

—In the circuit court this morning, the jury in the case of Collins vs. De Forest, brought in a verdict for the defendant, assessing no damages. The case of the state against Mrs. Dullein Milligan, for adultery with Warren Helm, was then taken up, and has occupied all day. It is charged that Helm and Mrs. Milligan boarded at the Ogden house, and on Bluff street, under the names of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, District Attorney Sale, assisted by E. M. Hyzer, Esq., prosecutor, and J. W. Bates, Esq., defense.

—A private letter from the pen of Paymaster Henry T. Wright, dated Montevideo, Uruguay, April 23d, says, "The future of our ship is just now so uncertain that all hands are anything but happy. The Brooklyn is expected daily, and when she arrives it will appear whether or not we are to go to Madagascar." He further says that the crew are not at all desirous to make the trip. Some people would give all their old shoes for an opportunity to go to Madagascar.

—Miss Elizabeth Hogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hogan, of La Prairie, died yesterday afternoon shortly after two o'clock at the home of her parents, after a severe illness of ten days, of intermittent and brain fever. The deceased was a sister of City Marshal John Hogan, and enjoyed an extended acquaintance among the young people in the city, all of whom will deeply mourn her sudden and untimely death. The funeral will take place at St. Patrick's church to-morrow morning, at 10:30 o'clock, Rev. Father McGinnis officiating. The funeral party will leave the house in La Prairie, with the remains, at nine o'clock.

—The Domestic art exhibition, given by Mr. P. E. Derick, agent of the Domestic sewing machine, in the Norcross block, is drawing many visitors, and proves to be worthy a visit. Mr. Derick has a large variety of specimens on exhibition, the work embracing many articles of home decoration, including applique work, samms, suitable embroidery, tinsel, plush, lace, velvet, and satin work. Many of the specimens show evidence of two skill, both in the Domestic sewing machine and the person operating it. The dummies are very tastefully

MEMORIAL DAY.

An Appeal to the Ladies for Aid in Preparing Emblems for Our Beloved Dead.

List of Superintendents and Young Women of Decorating Committee.

In behalf of the committee of arrangements for Memorial Day, I make an urgent appeal to the ladies of this city for aid in preparing emblems for our beloved dead. Crosses of evergreen for more than one hundred of our "brave boys in blue" who have answered the last reveille are to be made, bouquets arranged, and we need every willing hand.

Will our Norwegian, Lutheran and Catholic friends render us the same kindness they did last year arming bouquets at home and bringing them up ready for "God's Aero"? This will expedite matters and leave their hands free for other work.

Let the children mingle the wildwood flowers with those from the garden and bring them tied in bouquets.

Any who prepare special designs for their dead, will please accompany them with the name and give them in charge of the chairman of the ladies' committee. Assurance of their being properly placed is assuredly given.

Ladies please furnish themselves with scissors, as these are essential.

Every citizen is most cordially invited to bring flowers to the parlors of Court Street Methodist church as early as nine o'clock, Memorial morning.

Come all who can and join the cortege to the cemetery. Give this one day in the year, "In Memoriam" of the brave men who have died that we might live. No sacrifice is too vast, no self-denial too great to make, to honor the place where the heroes "sleep their last sleep."

Let us then, with reverent hand, make beautiful on this Memorial Day the "City of the Dead."

Mrs. MARY D. McHENRY, Chairman Ladies' Com.

The following is a list of the young women and superintendents of decorating committee for Memorial Day:

First division.

Miss M. Rogers, Sup't—Addie Best, Dollie Best, Nellie Schottle, Blanche Hayward, Mamie Beets, Grace Weaver.

Second division.

Mrs. M. D. McHenry, Sup't—Theodore Harlow, Mamie Shopbell, Faith Wilmarth, Mabel Patton, Lillian M. McHenry, Charlotte W. McHenry.

Third division.

Miss Gertrude Cobb, Sup't—Amy Bowles, Lulu Palmer, Beth Palmer, Jessie Brynston, Mattie Blakeley, Ada Cheney.

Fourth division.

Miss Kittie Shopbell, Sup't—Jessie Conger, Mattie Shopbell, Lou. Fenton, Ada Fenton, Nellie Blakeley, Beatrice Proller.

Fifth division.

Mrs. Paul Peterson, Sup't—Elinor Andrews, Ella Horne, Lillie Munden, Mabel Nyhart, Mary Campbell, Susie Campbell.

Uniform for decorators will consist of white dresses, red stockings, blue tartan scarfs and wreaths of arbor vitae.

The scarfs will be furnished by the committee.

Younger and Better.

Benson's Caprine Porous Plasters are not older than all others; but they are better than all others. 25c.

Brief Session.

The board of supervisors adjourned very abruptly last evening, before the completion of the organization, the adoption of any rules, or the appointment of the committee. Some of the members think the board adjourned through a mistake. It appears that Mr. Conley, of Clinton, made a motion "that when the board adjourns it be until this morning at nine o'clock," but no action was taken, and many members thinking the motion was adopted, voted to adjourn, thus ending the special session. There is some talk of authorizing the clerk to call another special meeting, as there is some very important business to be attended to.

The following business was acted upon yesterday afternoon, after the Gazette went to press.

On motion of Mr. Burdge, the building committee was instructed to build a one-story dining room at the county farm at a cost not to exceed three hundred and fifty dollars.

Also that the building committee be authorized to repair the roof of the court house, and appropriate $350 for the same.

The chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of three, himself to be a member, for the purpose of revising the rules, and report at the November meeting.

On motion of Mr. Carlo the sum of $75 was appropriated for the benefit of Mrs. Randall, to be paid in monthly installments.

The board then adjourned.

HO First Turnout and Then Cold.

And now comes the drawing of the capital prize of $25,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery Company, on April 23d, drawing at New Orleans, of which Judge Isaac O. Modesta, has been awarded $5,000. Mr. Isaac was in San Francisco, yesterday, and said that there was a peculiar circumstance in relation to his securing the lucky ticket. "In the first place," he said, "I had turned hot and then cold." I then asked the check for the happy man and he left the city for Modesta in high glee. Mr. Isaac is a clothing store keeper in Modesta, and has seen some pretty hard struggles.—San Francisco Call, Chronicle.

A Grinning Death's Head

is scarcely more abhorrent to a refined observer, than a row of discolored teeth made visible by a smile. Correct the hideous blemish with delightful and healthful ROZODONT, which whitens yellow teeth, improves rudeness and hardness, and restores healthy gums, and a dental blemish to the beauty. The formula modicum becomes wonderfully attractive in consequence of its use. Leading actresses and cantatrices regard it as indispensable.

AN OLD PIONEER GONE.

At seven o'clock Sunday morning, May 25th, 1884, at the residence of Mrs. Valhoy, in the town of Plymouth, after many years of failing health, died Gerjmund Stavlem, aged 69 years. Mr. Stavlem was born in the parish of Vegli, Norway, Jan. 27th, 1815. In the fall of '39 he landed in the town of Chicago, where he spent about a year. In the spring of '41 he, in company with his brother Lars, and K. Christenson "came west" and located on section 11, town 1, range 11, (town of Newark) there being but two log cabins in town at that time. Mr. Stavlem on section 11, and Widow Odgerdson (Gumale) on section 12. He afterwards bought land in section 6, same town, where he made his home for many years until failing health compelled him to retire from active labor. Mr. Stavlem had no family and after getting the farm he made his home for many years with H. C. Tollerud going with him to town, some eight or ten years ago. He returned about two years ago and has since lived with his relatives and friends; some six weeks ago he was confined to his bed where he has since calmly and patiently waited the summons—"To the silent halls of death." Monday afternoon May 25th, 1884, Gerjmund Stavlem was laid to rest by the side of his father and mother, three brothers and a sister, in the Lutheran cemetery at Newark, Rev. J. A. Bergh officiating.

The silvered locks and the palsied hands of the old pioneers, who performed the last sad rites for their old companion, was a touching sight, forcibly reminding us of the inevitable march of time, that but a few more years at most, and the pioneers of old Kock will be known only in history.

Medical science teaches that rheumatism, neuralgia, is to be successfully met, not by met on its own ground, which is the blood. A remedy that purges the life current of those foul impurities that are the source of so much trouble, is one that may safely be supposed to fulfill the requirements of an efficient specific. Herein is the power of Adhloporos! It cleans out the poison from the system, and with the blood restored to purity, health returns to the stiffened limbs and strength to the tortured muscles.

Attention Tobacco Growers

There will be an adjourned meeting of the Tobacco association at Janesville in their rooms, on Saturday, the 31st inst., at half past two o'clock, sharp.

I am requested to say that we deem it for the interest of every farmer in this section who intends to grow a crop of tobacco this season, to be present at this meeting, as there will be an article read by one of the oldest and best posted growers in the county, on the subject of producing and handling a crop from first to last. Also an opportunity to anyone to ask questions and draw out for general discussion anything he may want to know about the subject. There will be present several competent men who will gladly answer any questions to the best of their ability.

Farmers and tobacco men, turn out and let us have a general good time discussing this matter, don't fail to come. This our last chance before setting time begins. Don't forget the time, next Saturday at half past two p. m.

Respectfully yours,

B. D. ROODWOOD.

Grand Opening.

The pleasant picnic grounds known as Pope's springs, have been fitted up as summer resort, and will be opened to the public Sunday, June 1st, 1884. The steamer Enterprise will leave her dock on North Main street, at 10 o'clock a. m. and over land thereafter during the day. Music by the Catholic Cornet band. The grounds are very pleasant, and Capt. Buchholz will spare no pains to make this a popular home resort. The people of Janesville can find good camping accommodations and good fishing without going far from home. Games and refreshments on the grounds. No intoxicating liquor allowed. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody. Round trip tickets 25 cents.

You will find all medicines advertised in this paper at Prentice & Evenson's, opposite Postoffice, Janesville. Medicines in liquid form sent by mail. Prescriptions and receipts prepared from pure and fresh drugs cheaper than at any other reliable druggists in the county.

Gas and Electric Light.

We notice in the Elgin News, of May 20th, a petition to the common council of that city, signed by thirty or more prominent citizens, which reads as follows:

We, the undersigned residents on Chicago, Gifford, DuPage, Fulton and Prairie streets, would respectfully request you to your honorable body that the change in street lighting from gas lamps to the tower system, has left a great darkness—or nearly so,—and believing that every taxpayer should receive some benefit for money so paid, respectfully petition your honorable body, to cause the above named streets to be again lighted with gas lamps, believing it to be greater economy and satisfaction to all concerned.

This is a trouble that is experienced by nearly every city using the electric light. It very unevenly and unjustly divides the light. Some have super-abundance and others who pay just as much taxes, have darkness instead of light. And yet, with the electric light system, this annoyance can not be avoided; so that very many who pay heavy taxes, get but very little light. Under the gas system, the one is far different. The light is more evenly distributed, serving all the people on the street alike, and beside that, it is more reliable, more satisfactory, and more economical.

Attention Power City Rifles.

All members not intending to accompany the regiment to Monroe on the 30th will please bring their dress uniform to the armory on Thursday evening.

J. B. LAGRANSON, Captain Commanding Company.

Z. LAGRANSON, Acting Orderly Sergeant.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 44 degrees above zero. Clear with northeast wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 55 degrees above zero. Clear with north wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago, the register was 50 and 68 degrees.
